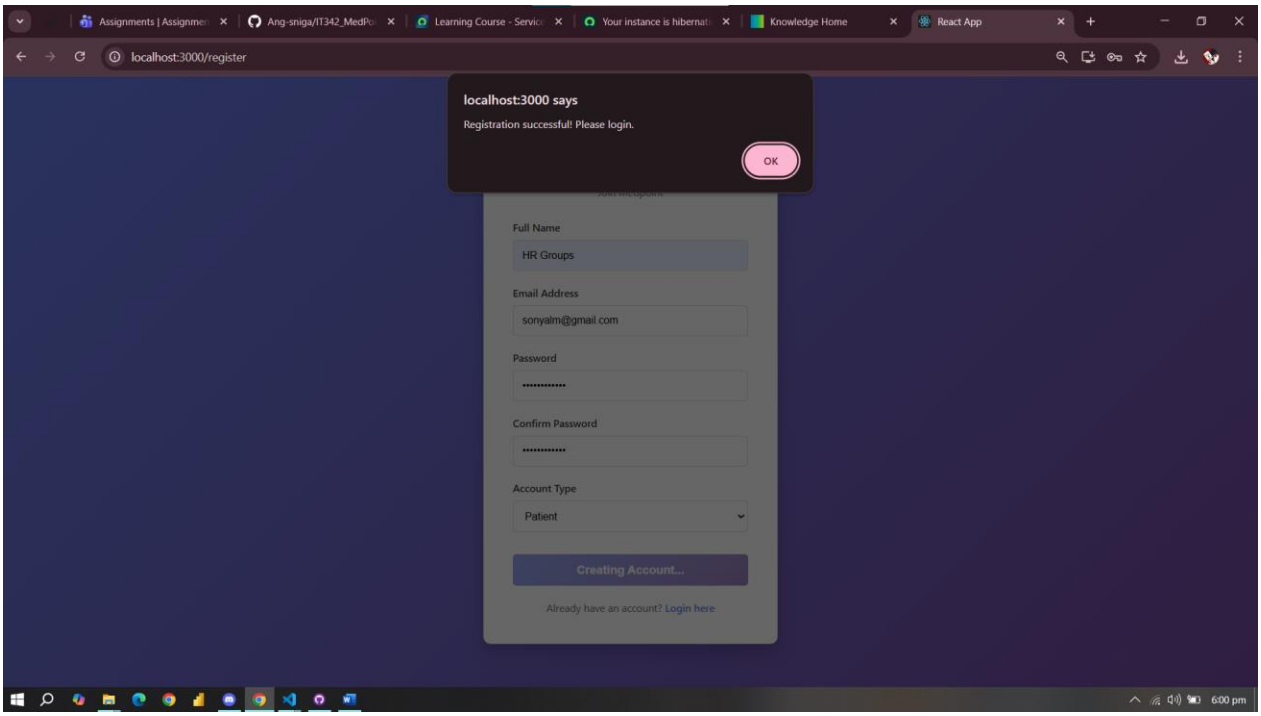
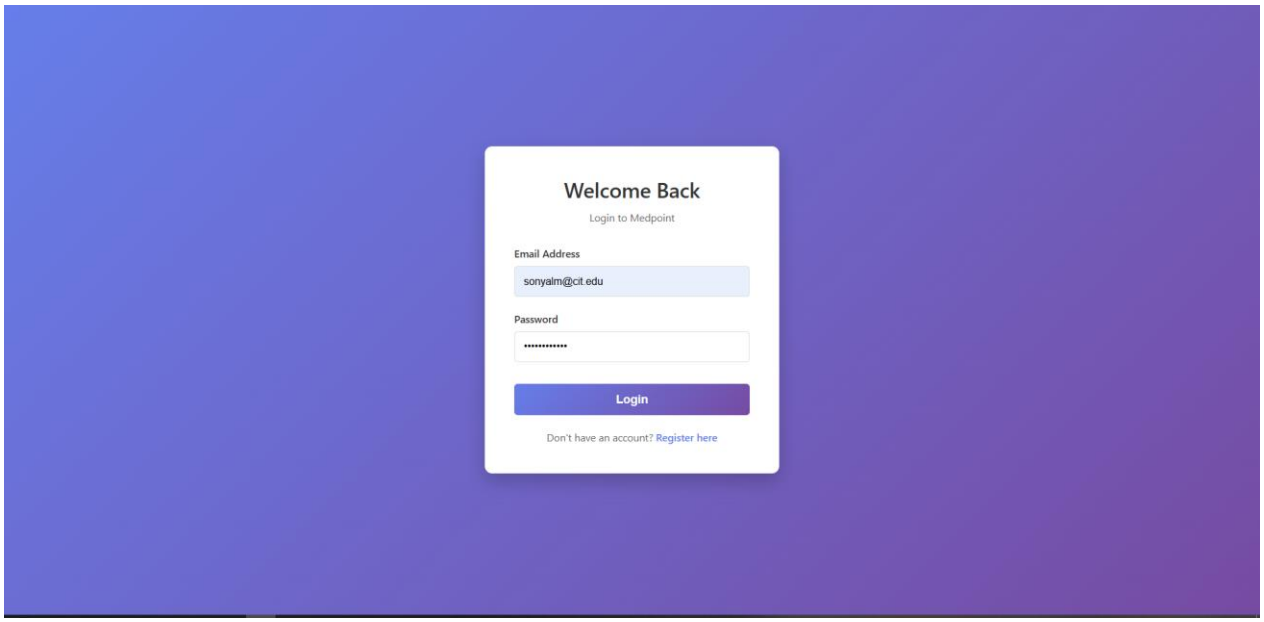
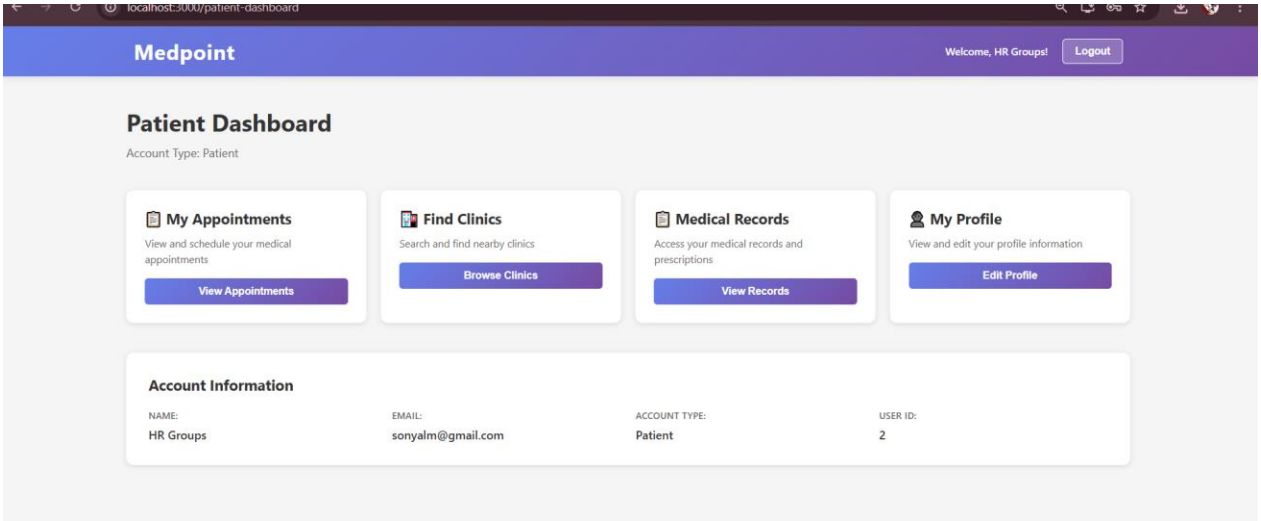
Registration an User can Make an Account to account to access the app

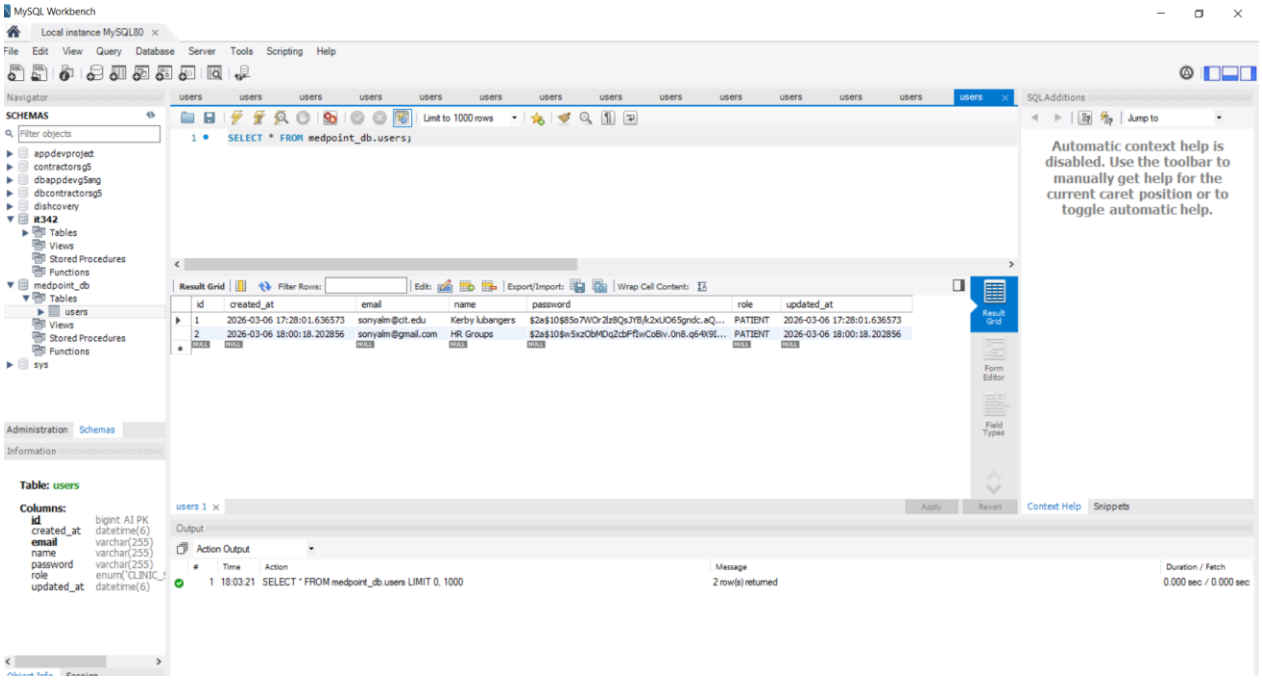
Validation process includes the input of your email, password and also the type of role you making it. the password is also hashed.



Login Allows the users to Login with his registered account it verifies if the password and email is the same and when login in procced to Dashboard.







The data I used is the SQL which includes the username email and password which is hashed and you can also see if you're a patient or staff.